Who is the Shamrock Club

by Brian Witt

The Shamrock Club is reaching towards its fiftieth year. It is not the same organization today as it was a half century ago. It has grown and evolved, had painful and bitter fights and might have separated and closed down if cooler heads hadn't prevailed. We have lost dance schools, and had acrimonious fights over parades and kilts and more, helped provide the leadership for the largest Irish festival in the world, and brought forth the ICHC.

Here are some of the highlights for people who may not know where we came from. These are not complete, so, once people read it, elaborations and corrections will abound. We are trying to touch upon a number of significant moments in the Club's history. Names might not be mentioned, but the history is there.

TRIPS TO IRELAND. Charter trips to Ireland for members were a novel thing in the 1960s. In order to qualify for a trip to Ireland, you had to be a member in good standing. This was at a time when American airlines didn't offer service to Ireland on a regular basis, and Aer Lingus wasn't a real factor in the market. When the airlines realized that the Irish market was a lucrative one, they had legislation passed that reduced the ability of organizations such as the Shamrock Club to continue in the charter business. However, it was a good decade of flying for the Club.

THE SHAMROCK CLUB DANCERS. Started by Nina Nash Robertson, it was the first Irish dance school in Wisconsin. After Nina took a teaching position in Michigan, Mary Eileen Geary took over the school. In 1982, the dance school split from the Club, with one portion going to the newly founded Trinity Academy, under the direction of Mark Howard, from Chicago, and the other to the Cashel School of Irish Dance.

IRISH FEST. Many of the members of the original Irish Fest board were members of the Shamrock Club. For the first two years of the festival, the Club provided the raffle license for the annual drawing for Irish Fest. The two groups have been separate entities, even with the high level of crossover. Former Club president Ed Ward put together a committee to get an Irish festival up and running in the late 1970s. It debuted in 1981.

COLOR GUARD PIPES AND DRUMS. The Shamrock Club Color Guard originally started as a designated group to carry the Irish and American flags during the St. Patrick's Day Parade in 1966. For sixteen years, Kit Nash led the Shamrock Club down parade routes, until his retirement in 1982. The same year, 1982 the new Shamrock Club Color Guard made its debut under Ed Reidy, and in the 1983 St Patrick's Day Parade, new uniforms of kilts and berets made their debut. In 1988, it was one of the few American groups to march in the Dub-lin Millennium St. Patrick's Day Parade. Other parades across the country they have appeared in over the years include the Savannah, New Orleans, San Antonio and New York City parades. In 1997, the name was changed to the Shamrock Club Color Guard Pipes and Drums to reflect new status as a pipe band, as well as a ceremonial and honor guard. There are now over forty members of the SCCGPD, and there are also over twenty pipers in the corps

EASTER RISING MASS. Started by Kit Nash in the 1970s in honor of his father and the other IRA members who took part in the start of the Irish Rebellion on Easter Monday, 1916. It was held in the chapel at St. Rose's for many years, then moved to Marquette University and then to the ICHC. Father Michael Maher, S.J., has said the majority of the Easter Rising Masses over the decades. He will again say the Mass on March 23.

MASS IN HONOR OF ST PATRICK. Color Guard members Joe Pembroke and Chuck McLaughlin started the Mass in Honor of St. Patrick. Joe, a Dubliner from the Liberties, felt that it was a way to keep the day in the correct mood, as it is a Holy Day of Obligation in Ireland. Both of them thought about developing a Mass on or near St. Patrick's Day. It was also another chance for the Color Guard to be on display. As Chuck was a member of St. Patrick's, he felt the Mass would be most appropriately celebrated there. It is in its 23rd year in 2008.

PARADES. The Shamrock Club's first parade was in 1967. It was held on Wisconsin Avenue. The parade stayed on Wisconsin until the reconstruction of the Wisconsin Avenue Bridge forced them to move to Mitchell Street. There, it ran from First Street to 14 Street and Forest Home. The parade later was moved to North Avenue, running from 52nd to 74th and North Avenues, with a staging area at Steuben Junior High School and a closing area at 74th. The Parade traveled to Bluemound Road in 2000. It was moved to Downtown Milwaukee in 2003. Parade directors have included Danny O'Donoghue, Chuck Ward, Mike Boyle, Tim O'Brien, Mick McDermott, Dan Molloy and Mike O'Leary.

MILWAUKEE PUBLIC MUSEUM. Members of the Shamrock Club furnished the Irish cottage in the Milwaukee Public Museum, in the European Village. If you stop down, you can see the lace curtains and kitchen table of members.

JEREMIAH CURTIN HOUSE. The Jeremiah Curtin House is a unique stone building built in 1846. It was the boyhood home of noted American linguist and folklorist Jeremiah Curtin and is part of the Trim-born Farm estate in Greendale. It was restored and refurbished by fundraising and work from the members of the Shamrock Club.

IRISH CULTURAL AND HERITAGE CENTER OF WISCONSIN.

The ICHC grew out of a committee of the Shamrock Club looking to establish an Irish center in Milwaukee. It was a contentious issue for the Club. However, in 1992, the ICHC was incorporated. In 1996, it purchased the former Grand Avenue Congregational Church. The Shamrock Club was the first Irish group to contribute to the Center, donating $15,000.

We have had a rich history. And in many ways, the Shamrock Club has changed the landscape of the Milwaukee Irish community, as well as the State, and the nation. There are more highlights and events in the Shamrock Club history. This is a reminder that the 50th anniversary celebrations are being planned. If you have ideas of what to do, pass them along. Or if you have memories about the Shamrock Club, we would like to hear those, as well.

Joseph Hughes – 2008 Irishman of the Year

I am truly honored to be named the 2008 Shamrock Club Irishman of the Year. Some of my favorite life moments have occurred while I've been surrounded by the members of the Shamrock Club.

My family tree included the Donahues and the O'Neils so it's no wonder some of my earliest memories of St. Patrick's Day and my Irish Heritage were of course, boiled dinners.

During high school at St. John's Cathedral I learned to play drums and was a member of the school band. My first exposure to the official Irish community was when I met Marcy Daley, one of the Daley sisters. The Daley sisters invited me to join their group, The Daley Debutantes, as a drummer. I marched with the Debs in several parades, among them the famous Chicago St. Patrick's Day Parade. Another Daley sister, Sherry, was responsible for introducing me to Miss Bridget O'Brien. Most of you know the rest of the story, which involved one of the biggest wedding parties the Irish Cultural and Heritage Center has seen to date.

A gift membership from my parents was my introduction to the Shamrock Club. Stops at Dick Tierney's Irish Abbey brought out my enthusiasm for Irish music. Tom Mulvanny drafted me to volunteer at Irish Fest and my love of all things Irish began to grow. I responded to an ad in Emerald Reflections for the Shamrock Club's Color Guard. Thus began a twenty year love affair with the group and its many members, some gone now but no less close to my heart.

I've had the wonderful opportunity as a member to watch our Shamrock Club Color Guard expand to become the Shamrock Club Color Guard Pipes and Drums. I've had the privilege to participate in leading our group in several events. I became more active in the Shamrock Club, as a board member, then, I had the honor of being elected President of the Club.

Over the past twenty five years of volunteering at Irish Fest, I have gone from volunteering as bartender to co-coordinator of the Cultural Village.

I have also been involved with The Shorewood Men's Club as a member and Board Member and President.

My children have always been at my side, helping first as youngsters to come with Dad for the fun. Now they are volunteering as adults with the Shamrock Club, Irish Fest, and the ICHC. I love them all, my son Joseph, his wife Becky and my grand-daughter Sophia, my daughter Erin and her Fiancé Andrew.

Linda Tuescher – 2008 Irish Rose

Linda Tuescher is married to Tom, is a mother of three (Paige, Brooke, and Todd), and the grandmother of six (Maura, Nick, Tyler, Maeve, Finn, and Tommy). She is the true product of Milwaukee's ethnic melting pot. Her father was Polish, her mother was Irish, English and German. She believes that a person is strongly tied to one's heritage. The ties that pull at Linda are the Wee bit of Ireland.

The pull became stronger after her first of many trips to Ireland twenty years ago. As a result of that trip she added an Irish Corner to her custom picture framing shop and gallery in Racine. She hosted several artists and designers from Ireland that also appeared at the Cultural Village at Irish Fest. The Irish Corner eventually grew into The Irish Trader in Cedarburg. This venture lasted until February 2005 when Linda decided to retire. Retail remained in her blood and brought her to share the responsibilities of the sales booth of the Shamrock Club with Noreen Barkley.

In addition to Linda's involvement with the Shamrock Club, she has served as a Eucharistic Minister for the St. Patrick's Day and Easter Rising masses. Her green VW convertible has seen a few St. Patricks Day parades.

Linda has volunteered as a member of the ICHC cultural committee as well as serving an elected term on the Board of Directors. The many framed photographs of performers that appear in the hall of the ICHC are compliments of Linda's framing abilities, as are those of several other pieces of artwork in the building.

Del Canon – Parade Marshal 2008

It is an honor to be chosen as your Parade Marshal for 2008.

I first joined the Shamrock Club in 1988 after my wife Pam and I attended our first Irish Fest. I became an active member from the very start, and have served on the Shamrock Club board as both Sgt. at Arms and as Trustee.

In 1991, Chuck McLaughlin, Joe Pem-broke and Tom Neville invited me to join the Shamrock Club Color Guard Pipes and Drums. It has been an honor to be in the Color Guard all these years, and watch it grow into the largest Color Guard Pipes and Drums in Milwaukee.

I have had the pleasure of working with Bob Hamill and his crew down at Irish Fest for the past seven years, setting up the Cultural Area.

I served on the committee to erect the memorial for the Lady Elgin.

Several years ago I joined the Emerald Society. These men and women do a great job raising monies for Children's Hospital through the Brendan Heart Fund.

After being volunteered by Pam, I have worked in the Irish Cultural Booth at the Holiday Folk Fair for the past sev-eral years. It is always a pleasure to talk to people about Ireland and the Irish.

Finally, my daughter Erin has kept Pam and me busy with her Irish danc-ing. Irish dancing is a big part of the Irish culture, and Erin has thoroughly embraced it. Her dancing has taken us throughout the United States, and to Canada, Scotland and Ireland. We are once again preparing to go to Ireland to watch Erin compete at the 2008 World Championships.

I am so thankful for all of the friends that I have made through the Shamrock Club, and for Pam and Erin who have supported me all of these years.

Shamrock Club of New Dublin

A Happy New Year to one and all and greetings from the Shamrock Club of New Dublin (New London, Wisconsin)! As preparations are underway in New Dublin for this year's celebration, we are pleased to make these announcements.

The theme for this year's St. Patrick's Day celebration is "New Dublin – Love of My Heart". Our annual parade and Irish Festival will be on March 15 with Mike and Ted Coppersmith of Festival Foods in New London serving as Parade Grand Marshals. Our Irish Man and Irish Rose for 2008 are Shamrock Club members Ed and Marie Jagoditsch of New London. Soon we'll choose our Irish Lad and Lassie (to be announced).

Our week-long celebration of all things Irish kicks off on Monday March 10 when the "Leprechauns" officially change the name of our city from New London to New Dublin; on Tuesday March 11, it's Hooligan's Day the official beginning of all area restaurants serving corned beef and cabbage, some serving as much as 1,500 pounds over the week! On Wednesday March 12 Irish Caroling at 5:30 p.m. at St. Joseph's Residency and Franklin Park Apartments for the elderly – it's a great way to share Irish music and celebration with our elderly and shut-in community. On Thursday March 13, it's "An Evening of Irish Entertainment" at the New London High School Auditorium at 7 p.m. music, dance, and variety are featured. On Friday March 14 at 7 p.m. an Irish Ceili is held at Crystal Falls in New London. Each year this evening of Irish dance gets better and better. Also, on Friday evening we'll once again say farewell to Michael Finnegan as his wacky wake makes it's way to area establishments including Pup's Irish Pub at 8 p.m.

On Saturday March 15 the Irish Fest tent opens at 11 a.m. with a mix of original traditional and modern Celtic music from a young Irish music band Rising Gael, from Madison, Wisconsin. Then at 1 p.m. our Grand Parade steps off with bag pipers, floats, high school marching bands and many unique and unusual family and business parade entries. Irish Fest continues after the parade and our featured band performing from 3–6 p.m. in the Irish Fest tent hails from Stevens Point Wisconsin. Green Tea performs high-energy Irish music with a strong infusion of Celtic world-beat and contemporary improvisation. The distinctiveness of Green Tea's sound (the traditional blended with the new) sometimes defies categorization, fusing sounds of Celtic with Folk, Pop, African, Rock, Jazz and more! So be sure to mark your calendars and "Catch a great day, play and stay in New London". For more information: [www.newdublin.com] or [www.newlondonchamber.com].

Milwaukee President's Message

Ah, March. This is the month of what seems like a million activities. We start with our 48th birthday party, then go directly to our parade, and Post Parade Party. After that, we have the Mass in Honor of Saint Patrick, and a week later, our annual Easter Rising Mass. And those are just Shamrock Club events.

Our March 6 meeting and 48th birthday party will feature the sashing of our Irish honorees, Irishman Joe Hughes, Irish Rose Linda Tuescher, and Parade Marshal Del Canon. There will also be a concert by the Shamrock Club Color Guard Pipes and Drums. And birthday cake. Yum. And the members of the NYPD will be meeting in the same building, so we can have a chance to socialize with them, as well.

Two days later, we will be marching and enjoying Irish music and dance. Our 42nd annual St Patrick's Day Parade will feature the largest parade of any kind in the State of Wisconsin. The parade steps off at noon, and then is followed by the largest St. Patrick's Day celebration under one roof, our annual Post Parade Party. It features four stages, dancing, music and children's shows. And a reminder that there is no limit as to how many people can attend. It is the largest family based St. Patrick's Day event around. A special thank you to Mike O'Leary and Kris Pluskota for their hard work in organizing things. And a thank you to Westown, our partner in this venture.

On Saturday, March 15, our 23rd annual Mass in Honor of St. Patrick will take place at St. Patrick's Church, 723 S. 7th Street at 8:30 a.m. And on Sunday, March 23, our annual Easter Rising Mass will take place at the ICHC at 9:30 a.m. Father Michael Maher will celebrate it. A continental breakfast is available following the Mass.

There are a couple of Irish Fest events to talk about. The Green Tie Affair is March 15, and features Seamus Kennedy and all sorts of Irish music. It is a benefit for the Ward Music Archives. Also, on March 16, the Irish Fest Summer School is going to have a day at the Mitchell Park Domes. There will be crafts, Irish dance and music.

Westown will have a few events prior to Parade Day. On Friday, March 7, the Shamrock the Avenue will take place at the Millertime Pub.

It was good to see all the members of the various chapters at the Shamrock Club State Advisory Board meeting in Madison. We will have more information about the next one.

Buy our raffle tickets. The prizes are amazing. The raffle benefits our scholarship fund. We will have more details in Reflections on how to get them. The drawing will be at the April meeting. Thank you to Sid Grinker's for underwriting the cost of the ticket printing. It has been a few years since we had a sponsor for them. And thanks to Clan Quinlan for their organizational ability. Please buy a lot of tickets.

Tom Smith's recent wake and funeral showcased that he was a remarkable man who touched many areas of the Irish community. His life was a testament to how he was able to affect so many. Tom will be missed by all of us.

Thanks to all who managed to brave the bad weather in February for the rescheduled meeting. Derek Byrne and Sean Beglan did a wonderful job of entertaining.

Just a reminder about the upcoming nominations and elections – we are going to have a number of open offices. Please think about running. We can really use the infusion of new blood to go with the wisdom of the past.

I will see you very often in March, it seems. And then again for the April meeting. And buy those raffle tickets. It is a bang-up raffle for a great cause.

Color Guard News and Notes

Welcome to the Green Season! It sure has been a long winter and I look forward to seeing some green very soon. Even if it is only green beer and shamrocks! The band is hoping for snowless steets for the St. Patrick's Day parade on the 8th, but with only three weeks to go we could be marching through eight feet of snow instead! Let's hope.

We're busy, as usual, for the debut of our 2008 season. See our website [www.sccgpd.com] for complete details, but here is the short list for March:

- 2 – Brendan Heart Fund at Derrys Pub
- 8 – Milwaukee St. Patricks Day parade and post party
- 9 – Southside Chicago Irish Parade
- 15 – New London Parade
- 15 – St. Patrick Mass
- 23 – Easter Rising Mass

For the St. Patrick's Mass, see some of our very gracious former members come out of retirement to represent us at the mass. To you all, a huge thank you for your time and help. Could we talk you into donning the kilt for another season?

Other news... I hear a congratulations is in order to our pipe sergeant Mike Cor-nell and his lovely fiancée, Leah. Congrats from the band. I was bartending on their first date at O'Connor's Pub and was proudly there when he popped the question a few weeks ago. He wrangled up a few of us pipers to make it a grand scene and huge surprise for her. Lucky girl.

On a sad note, a sad farewell to Tom Smith. While never a part of the band or color guard per se, he was always a proud supporter of our endeavours along with his wife, and former Shamrock Club President, Julie. I remember a Tartan Ball two years ago where I had the pleasure of sitting near him and getting to sip a few bits o' whisky with him that night. I can see his happy face in my memory and know that he will surely be missed by many. A toast to Tom. Farewell, our friend. We'll never forget you. Slan agus beannact.

We have a new fundraiser happen-ing in April. A Dinner Train and Silent Auction April 26! Cost is $80 per person, $150 per couple. Enjoy Irish music while aboard the elegant dinner train at the East Troy Electric Railroad. It sounds like an absolutely fabulous night. See Heather Majusiak for more details or our website.

Well my friends. I'll keep this short as I know you're all getting ready for the green season. As for me, I 'm writing this as I sip my tequila from a beach chair in Cozumel so I'll be back soon to get ready as well.

See you all in March!

Brendan Heart Fund Benefit

On March 2, 2008, between the hours of 1 and 6 p.m., the Emerald Society of Wisconsin will be sponsoring the 18th annual benefit for the Brendan Heart Fund of Children's Hospital of Wisconsin.

The Emerald Society of Wisconsin, an organization of members of the criminal justice system, held the first Brendan Benefit in 1990. The Benefits have always been held prior to St. Patrick's Day at Derry Hegarty's Irish Pub, 5328 W. Bluemound Ave. This Benefit is designed to be a family event and we continue to be a family oriented event. The cost of the attendance has the family in mind, $5 in advance, $6 at the door.

The afternoon's entertainment will feature Atlantic Wave, Blarney, the Greater Milwaukee Fire & Police Pipes and Drums, the Shamrock Club Color Guard Pipes and Drums and the Glencastle Irish Dancers. In addition to the great entertainment, we will be featuring our "monster raffle".
